MAURICE SAMPLE SHOP.

Opening Day Today at 194 Main Street, Norwich - Eelegant Outer Garments, Suits, Furs, Waists, Etc., at Astonishing Prices.

This morning the Maurice Sample Shop opens for business in the handsome big store in the Wauregan house, 134 Main street. In conformity with the cheeriness of the season the store is attractively decorated with paims, thristmas trees, holly wreaths and festoons of evergreen roping.

For a long time this firm has been looking about for a suitable store in Norwich, and is now located here permanently, a fact which will be appreciated by those customers from New London and other towns who have been accustomed to go all the way to the firm's New Haven store to buy cloaks, turn suits, evening gowns, etc. Manufacturing in their own establishment in New York, the owners have at command a big line of outer garments, and make a feature of advance styles from the leading Paris houses, the ments, and make a feature of advance styles from the leading Paris houses, as well as of choice garments from the best makers in this country. Particularly do they specialize on suits, cloaks, waists, etc., to fit both large and small women: no size is too difficult for this house to furnish on demand. Then, too, they will show their Norwich patrons the advance spring styles from Europe, including elegant dancing frocks and reception sowns in the fashianble net, choice models in chiffon, and other wanter materials.

An elegant sample long coat of Hud-son seal, fox trimmed, is in the show window, also a rich coral broadcloth evening coat with trimmings of panne velvet. Model gowns of embroidered white net, one especially admired built with double flource, bodice in cape with pipings, girdle and ros of baby pins; a London smoke chif-fon over salf-tone satin, draped, one-side effect bodies combined with ca-nary chiffon and Venice lace, satin panel forming the train, ornamental bands and rosettes of satin ribbon, are gowps which every lady will delight to see. Children's cloaks, dresses, etc., are also featured.

Buying so many sample garments and manufacturing so many more, this house can afford to sell at prices which will astonish and delight shoppers from Norwich and surrounding towns. Under the big bunch of mistletoe which is suspended above their enrance door the managers are expecting to receive many ladies today, a the opening.

ORPHEUM THEATER, DANIELSON.

For next Tuesday evening, December 76, the engagement is announced of Teel's famous band of Boston in con-cert at the Orpheum theater at Dan-reison. Teel's is Boston's leading band and is the official musical organization of the Naval Brigade, M. V. M., and of the National Lancers.

of the National Lancers.

For the past six years the band has appeared regularly mounted on horse-back, escorting the National Lancers at their annual parade, one of the principal military events of the year in Boston, where no big event seems to be complete without the presence of this master organization, resplendent in its full dress uniform of scarlet and black.

This hand has given elaborate concerts upon many occasions, both in the certs upon many occasions, both in the United States and Canada, and has never failed to win the applicance of the most critical, especially in Boston, the center of culture and art in the United States. Included in the organization, organized and directed by Henjamin F. Tool, are a number of soloists of na-tional reputation.

AS TO QUEER NAMES.

The man from Punksutawney and the man from Kokomo
Discussed the Chinese troubles, and the first said "Don't you know."
I think these Chinese names are queer enough to stop a clock."
"That's right," replied another man from fair Caucumgomoc.

The man from Kokomo observed, "By ginger, that's a fac'l That's what my brother says he lives down here in Hackensack" And still another stranger said the mans comment was true; And added, with a smile of pride, "My home's in Kal'mazoo." Another man took up the strain. "Now, down at Skowhegan way And up at Ypsilanti we speak it every day.

The names are all uncivilized and heathen in their ring.
That's wint I told my uncle yesterday in Ishpeming."

"Hohokus is my native town," another stranger said;
"And I think all these Chinese names the worst I ever read."
"Quite true," agreed a quiet man; "they're certainly uncanny.
That's what my neishbors all assert in Tail Holt, Indianny."
